I will promote the Institutes' values through the council in.

1. Broadening the institutes reach by instituting and pushing for mutual recognition agreements across the diverse accounting professions worldwide.
2. Leveraging the International Day of the Accountant to advance the "catch them young" agenda of the institute, thus creating ICAN brand awareness across the society's broad spectrum.
3. Harnessing the relationship between the district(s) and the council as a basis for deepening the connection between members and the institute with an intent to foster inclusiveness and promote diversity across all levels of the institute including digitalization.
4. Continuous and sustained improvement of the MCPD programs such that per time, per season it remains robust and enriching to build the professional accountant in tandem with trends and global developments.
5. Promoting the accounting profession through seminars in higher institutions and secondary schools and mentoring programs.
6. Fostering a robust and encompassing library system through the district society office's platform.
7. Collaborating and assisting with the efforts of the Institute to raise funds to support its developmental initiatives.
