REGISTRAR/CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S CORNER

Dear Professional Colleagues,

I welcome you to this edition of your favourite Newsletter. In this edition, you will read about the courtesy visit our President, Hajia Queensley Sofuratu Seghosime, mni, MSc, FCA, paid to the Executive Chairman of the Lagos State Internal Revenue Service (LIRS), Mr. Hamzat Ayodele Subair, FCA, on Friday, July 10, 2026. The visit was to strengthen collaboration on tax administration, professional development and fiscal governance. The details of their discussion are contained in this edition.

Also, the Chairman of the ICAN Oluyole and District Society, Ibadan, Dr. Olawale Dopemu and his team took a leap recently by unveiling the District's maiden newsletter christened "ICAN Oluyole Insight". At the event, the Chairman explained that the newsletter was established because accounting profession is evolving rapidly in response to technological advancement, changing regulations, sustainability reporting, corporate governance reforms and artificial intelligence, which necessitates Accountants as professionals, to remain informed, adaptable, and proactive. Further details are contained in this edition.

ICAN, LIRS REINFORCE PARTNERSHIP ON TAX ADMINISTRATION AND FISCAL GOVERNANCE

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria (ICAN), led by its 62nd President and Chairman of Council, Hajia Queensley Sofuratu Seghosime, mni, MSc, FCA, paid a courtesy visit to the Executive Chairman of the Lagos State Internal Revenue Service (LIRS), Mr. Hamzat Ayodele Subair, FCA, FCTI, on Friday, July 10, 2026, to strengthen collaboration on tax administration, professional development and fiscal governance.

Speaking during the visit, Hajia Seghosime commended LIRS for its leadership in revenue administration, digital transformation and institutional excellence, noting that the Service has become a benchmark for tax administration across Africa. She reaffirmed ICAN's commitment to supporting LIRS through technical advisory, research, policy advocacy and capacity development, while also seeking the Service's continued partnership in the Institute's programmes, including the 56th Annual Accountants' Conference.

Responding, Mr Subair congratulated Hajia Seghosime on her election as the 62nd President of ICAN and reaffirmed LIRS' commitment to deepening its longstanding relationship with the Institute through collaboration in professional development, taxpayer education, policy advocacy and initiatives that promote voluntary tax compliance.

The ICAN delegation included the First Deputy Vice President, Chief Oye Akinsulire, Ph.D, FCA; Council Members, Otunba Oluwatobi Ayodele Abiola, mni, Ph.D, FCA; Dr. Kingsley Ndubueze Ayozie, MSc, MBA, DBA, FCA; and Mrs. Nyakno Ololade Oluokun, MSc, FCA; the Registrar/Chief Executive, Dr. Lanre Olasunkanmi, FCA; and the Assistant Director, Membership Affairs, Mr. Imonikhe Adams.

ICAN PRESIDENT PAYS COURTESY VISIT TO PAST PRESIDENT MAZI NNAMDI OKWUADIGBO, FCA

The President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria (ICAN), Hajia Queensley Sofuratu Seghosime, mni, MSc, FCA, paid a courtesy visit to a Past President of the Institute, Mazi Nnamdi Anthony Okwuadigbo, BSc, FCA, who served as ICAN's 55th President from 2019 to 2020, at his residence in Port Harcourt.

The visit, which took place on the sidelines of activities marking the investiture of the 2nd Chairman of the Trans Amadi District & Society of ICAN, reflected the Institute's enduring tradition of honouring its past leaders and fostering cordial relationships across generations of the profession.

Accompanying the President were Council Members, Otunba Oluwatobi Ayodele Abiola, mni, Ph.D., FCA, and Mrs Miema Akpa, FCA; the Registrar/Chief Executive, Dr Lanre Olasunkanmi, FCA; as well as other distinguished Chartered Accountants and invited guests.

The visit was marked by warm interactions and reflections on the Institute's continued growth, reinforcing the enduring bond of fellowship and shared commitment that unites ICAN's leadership, past and present.
