Dear Member,

DELISTING AND SUSPENSION OF NON-FINANCIAL MEMBERS

Following our letter of October 3, 2019 on the above stated subject and the several publications in National Newspapers and ICAN Website, the Institute has now concluded the following:

1. Suspended Eleven Thousand, Two Hundred and Forty (11,240) Non-Financial Members who are owing for six (6) months to three (3) years; and
2. Delisted Fourteen Thousand, Three Hundred and Thirty-Seven (14,337) Non-financial Members who are owing for more than three (3) years effective from November 1, 2019.

However, Council has directed that members should be given two (2) weeks grace period ending November 19, 2019 to further reconcile their financial status with the Institute after which it reserves the right to publish such indebted members' details in National Newspapers.

You are enjoined to check your financial status or those known to you on the ICAN Website – www.icanig.org (Financial Members Search) and take necessary actions to regularise your membership if you are not on the Financial Members' List.

Please note that there are conditions to be met before those suspended or delisted could be re-admitted to full membership and no responses on inquiries from the public will be given on behalf of any indebted member.

In case of any complaints/enquiries on your indebtedness, please contact Finance Department – finance@ican.org.ng or call (01) 454-2085 and 0905-384-7527 (between the hours of 8.30a.m. to 4.30p.m. weekdays only Nigeria time).

Please accept our highest regards.

Yours sincerely,

John I. Evbodaghe, MBA, FCA
